Schedule 1

Detailed participation breakdown

Stage 1: "Participation in the game"

The Participant must complete the online entry form with the information set out in Clause 2.3 above and validate this information to access the game. The Participant is also invited to read the rules before playing.

In this game, the Participant plays a flight attendant and should position five passengers in a nearly full A350 aircraft, taking into account the preferences of each passenger to position them correctly and make their optimum flight conditions.

The Participant must therefore place passengers as soon as possible in a 90 second time limit to win.

Once at the end of the Game, the participant is registered in the draw. Step 2 (optional) "Additional Opportunities for Entry"

To reach this stage, Participants are invited to click on the button allowing them to replay the game by inviting another person (a "New Player") to participate in the Game. To continue, the Participant must provide and submit the email address of the New Player.

The email address must be valid. An email about the Game will be automatically sent to the New Player. The New Player is clearly informed of the first name of the Participant who sent this invitation.

It is understood that the e-mail address of the New Player is used only once for the purpose of offering participation in the Game. The e-mail address of the New Player is not maintained thereafter if the New Player does not wish to play the Game.

The Sponsor agrees to Qatar Airways sending an e-mail on behalf of the Participant inviting the New Player, once and only once, to participate in the Game.

The New Player invitation(s) is optional and not a condition to be included in the draw for any of the Prizes. The Participant may also decide to stop at that point without replaying (and therefore receive no additional chances) by clicking on the link provided for this purpose. The Participant then receives email confirmation of registration into the draw and is directed to the end of the Game.

If a Participant chooses to continue to the next stage of the Game, they will then access a new game level based on the same principle as described in step 1, but with increased complexity, and accumulated additional chances in the draw,.

Step 3 (optional) "extra chances by Facebook invitation"

The Participant can continue the Game again to take advantage of additional opportunities to be entered into the draw.

To access this new level, the Participant must invite a New Player to participate in the Game by sharing the game on Facebook.

Facebook is not a promoter or sponsor of this promotion. The personal data collected as part of this game is not for Facebook but for Qatar Airways.

If the Participant does not wish to continue, they shall be asked to click on the link provided for this purpose to be redirected at the end of the game.

The New Player invitation(s) via Facebook is optional and not a condition to be included in the draw.

If a Participant chooses to continue to the next stage of the game, they will then access a new game level based on the same principle as described in step 1, but with increased complexity, and accumulated additional chances in the draw, he same principle as in step 2.

Step 4 (optional) "extra chances by invitation email / Facebook / Twitter

The Participant can continue the Game again to take advantage of additional opportunities to be entered into the draw.

To access this new level, the Participant must invite a New Player to participate in the Game by entering their e-mail, sharing the Game on Facebook, or sharing the Game on Twitter.

Twitter and Facebook are neither promoters nor sponsors of this promotion. The personal data collected as part of this Game is not intended for Facebook and Twitter, but for Qatar Airways.

If the Participant does not wish to continue, the Participant is asked to click on the link provided for this purpose to be redirected at the end of the Game.

Inviting friend(s) emails via Facebook, or Twitter is optional and not a condition to be included in the draw.

If a Participant choses to continue to the next stage of the game, they will then access a new mini-game level based on the same principle as described in step 1, but with increased complexity, and accumulated additional chances in the draw, based on the score achieved on the same principle as in step 2.

Once the Game ends, the Participant will see the number of additional chances in the draw given to them, based on the score achieved.
